“Success Story: Winning Formula Revealed by the Winners”

“The victorious team attributes their triumph to meticulous preparation, early immersion in environmental laws and fundamental rights, in addition to unwavering support from esteemed faculty mentors. Rigorous research and relentless practice in articulating arguments fortified by relevant legal provisions were pivotal in their victory.

They underscore the significance of teamwork, exhaustive research, and mentorship for aspirants venturing into moot court competitions. Facing eminent judges like Honourable Mr Justice A. K. Menon and Honourable Mr Justice Nitin R. Borkar in the final rounds was daunting, yet they navigated it with poise, leveraging collaborative efforts and sound legal backing.

Reflecting on their journey, the winners stress the invaluable lessons gleaned from moot court participation: honing legal research and writing prowess, sharpening oral advocacy skills, fostering critical thinking, and adept problem-solving abilities. Their advice to future contenders emphasises preparation, teamwork, mentorship, and embracing the transformative potential of the moot court experience.”

“Victory in Mediation: Insights from National Competition Winners”

The team triumphs in a mediation competition, showcasing their talent as negotiators aiming for mutually beneficial outcomes. Reflecting on the experience, they highlight the intense semi-final round as particularly memorable. Comparing mediation competitions with traditional moot court events, they stress the shift from debate to negotiation. The team attributes their success to spontaneity and clarity in goal-setting, enabling them to navigate challenges effectively, such as their initial unfamiliarity with mediation. Negotiation skills are identified as pivotal for competition success, along with the ability to propose innovative and mutually beneficial solutions. Their victory is described as surprising and gratifying, demonstrating the fruits of relentless efforts and hard work.

“Mooting Success: Insights from Runners-up of Arjun Lal Agarwal Law Chambers Moot Court Competition”

We discussed the team's participation in a National Moot Court Competition hosted by the Arjun Lal Agarwal Law Chambers and the Orissa High Court Bar Association. The team utilized traditional research methods, utilizing platforms such as Indian Kanoon, Manupatra, and SCC Online, overcoming research challenges through keyword adaptation and case analysis. They gained valuable experiences from the competition, highlighting interactions with judges and legal professionals. The team attributes their success to coordination, practical approach, and mentorship. Challenges such as time management were addressed through overnight work and practice.

Essential skills for moot court success include research, argument structuring, handling judicial questioning, etiquette, and time management. Their advice for future participants stresses learning, early preparation, rule adherence, regular practice, and enjoyment. Despite finishing as runners-up, the team remains motivated to improve in subsequent competitions

The bronze medallist expressed excitement and happiness about her win at the Arena. She recounts the exhilarating experience of crossing the finish line without even realizing her placement until then, attributing her success to enjoying the race and maintaining a positive attitude.

A memorable moment is overtaking competitors during the race and sharing the track with more experienced athletes. Her preparation involved a determined mindset to finish the race. She expressed gratitude to her supportive friends and reflected on her overall positive experience at Bits Arena.

FACULTY SPOTLIGHT

Revolution in the education system from knowledge-based to skill-based post-COVID era.

Dr Mohammed Samiulla Arab was honoured to share his expertise as a panel speaker during the workshop 'Immersion', held in association with India's largest career guidance platform, Univariety, at Tarnaka on January 6th, 2024. With a keen focus on the evolving landscape of education in the post-COVID world, Dr. Arab lent his insights to the discussion on "Revolution in Education system: Shift from knowledge-based to skill-based." His presence enriched the dialogue, offering valuable perspectives on the crucial transition towards skill-centric learning methodologies. Additionally, the panel explored the practicality of N.R. Narayana Murthy's suggestion of a 70-hour workweek. Dr. Arab's participation added depth and resonance to the conversation, contributing to a holistic exploration of the challenges and opportunities facing contemporary education.

FACULTY SPOTLIGHT

Telangana State Judicial Academy invited Dr. Mohammed Samiulla Arab to share his expertise at the " III Basic Course." The academy's commitment to nurturing the legal talents of newly appointed junior judges is commendable. Dr. Dr. Mohammed Samiulla Arab's lecture on Criminal Law was a unique opportunity to impart knowledge and insights accumulated over years of experience. Engaging with 37 eager minds was an enriching experience, as he witnessed their dedication and passion for upholding justice. Such initiatives not only empower future legal luminaries but also reinforce the importance of continuous learning and collaboration within the legal community.

MOOT COURT SOCIETY

"Success and Achievement: Highlights from the Third Edition of the Intra Moot Court Competition on Criminal Law"

The Moot Court Society recently hosted its third intra moot court competition, with a focus on criminal law. Participants delved into the intricacies of FIRs, charges, and procedural aspects of IPC and CRPC, showcasing commendable preparedness and adept handling of queries. Preliminaries were judged by practising litigators and ensured thorough evaluation, while semifinals were scrutinized by experienced litigators present in person.

The esteemed panel for the semi-finals included advocates Rahul, Hussain, Rizwan, and Gautam Rahul. The final round, presided over by senior advocate L. Ravi Chandra, added to the prestige of the event. Throughout, students demonstrated enthusiastic participation, reflecting the meticulous organization of the competition. Conducted online for preliminaries and offline for semifinals, the event provided an immersive experience for participants. The society's efforts ensured a smooth and systematic competition, fostering an environment conducive to learning and growth for all involved.

"Triumph in the Courtroom: NMIMS School of Law's Moot Court Victory & the Influence of Esteemed Judges"

~ Sumaiyah Fatima,
Aditi K., Trishitha Reddy

In the recently concluded 3rd Intra-Moot Court Competition at NMIMS School of Law, second-year students Sumaiyah Fatima, Aditi K and Trishitha Reddy emerged victorious, also clinching the Best Researcher award. Their success was attributed to meticulous research and collaboration, emphasizing the importance of both research and advocacy skills. Despite facing challenges like time constraints, their resilience and effective strategies led to success. The presence of esteemed judges enriched the event, providing invaluable exposure to superior legal reasoning and fostering a competitive environment. Their expert critiques served as a powerful tool for self-improvement, benefiting participants' advocacy skills for future endeavours.

TRIAL ADVOCACY COMMITTEE

"The planning process for the mentorship session involved several key steps and collaborations. Initially, we sought permission and guidance from our mentor, Prof. Tarun Yadav, a respected faculty member, who provided invaluable insight. With his support, we assembled a committee to brainstorm and organize the event effectively. This planning phase took some time as we wanted to ensure every detail was meticulously arranged."

"Unveiling the Art of Trial Advocacy: A Dramatic Journey Through Legal Proceedings!"

"Regarding the structure of the event, we designed it to be engaging and educational. We chose a murder case scenario and incorporated it into a dramatic skit performed by members of the School of Law. Throughout the performance, Tarun Yadav sir provided commentary, explaining legal procedures such as opening and closing statements, thereby enhancing the audience's understanding of trial advocacy."

"Empowering
Through Awareness:
Unveiling Legal Rights for a
Safer Tomorrow"

On Saturday, March 9th, 2024, the Auditorium at NMIMS Hyderabad hosted a crucial Legal Awareness Programme for the housekeeping staff, orchestrated by the Legal Aid Committee. The event commenced at 3:00 pm with an inaugural address by the Legal Aid Committee. Distinguished guests, including Dr. Mohammed Samiulla Arab, Associate Dean of the School of Law, and Mr. Mahesh Kumar, Deputy Registrar of NMIMS Hyderabad, graced the occasion alongside esteemed Prof. Yogendra Jain and Prof. Nishit Tandra.

The programme featured an array of enlightening sessions aimed at empowering attendees with knowledge of their legal rights and responsibilities. A skit performed by the Legal Aid Committee shed light on pressing issues such as domestic violence, child abuse, and property disputes. Prof. Nishit Tandra delivered a poignant speech on fundamental rights and women's rights, underscoring their significance in daily life. Student interactions led by Krishna Chaitanya, Hasitha Kurupath, and Akshaya Macharla delved into specific legislations such as the Domestic Violence Act of 2005, the Motor Vehicle Act of 2019, and the POCSO Act of 2012, respectively.

Mr. Mahesh Kumar and Dr. Mohammed Samiulla Arab emphasized the importance of legal awareness in society through their speeches, while Prof. Yogendra Jain extended a heartfelt vote of thanks, encapsulating the spirit of collaboration and enlightenment fostered by the event.

"Empowering Tomorrow's Legal Minds: Insights from Lok Adalat"

On March 16, 2024, Mahabubnagar district court's DLSA hosted a National Lok Adalat event, offering 22 students a firsthand glimpse into this significant mechanism. Commencing at 10:00 am, the event featured enlightening speeches by judges, shedding light on Lok Adalat's foundational principles of fairness and expediency. Students were assigned to various courtrooms dealing with diverse disputes, affording them a comprehensive understanding of Lok Adalat's purview. Through engaging interactions with judges, students delved deeper into legal processes, seeking clarifications and posing insightful questions. Detailed presentations elucidated Lok Adalat's operational intricacies, emphasizing its informal nature, mediation focus, and the binding nature of settlements. This educational experience provided students with invaluable insights into alternative dispute resolution dynamics in India, complementing their academic studies. The initiative not only heightened legal awareness but also offered insight into the culture of peaceful dispute resolution. Heartfelt gratitude is extended to the Legal Aid Committee for facilitating the visit, along with mentor, Prof. Yogender Jain for his unwavering support and guidance. Undoubtedly, this visit enriched students' comprehension of the legal system and alternative dispute resolution mechanisms, furthering the cause of justice, harmony, and reconciliation.

SEMINAR AND DEBATE COMMITTEE

“A Journey of Self-Discovery and Confidence Building”

Distinguished academic figures, including Dr. Siddhartha Ghosh, Dr. Mohammed Samiulla Arab, and Dr. B. Mahesh Kumar, graced the occasion, further elevating its significance. The NMIMS Hyderabad School of Law Extempore Competition exemplifies the institution's commitment to fostering holistic student development, as participants refined their legal reasoning and communication skills, fostering academic and personal growth.

The Seminar & Debate Committee of NMIMS Hyderabad's School of Law conducted a successful Extempore Competition held on Tuesday, January 30, 2024, in the Auditorium. The event garnered enthusiastic participation from 38 competitors representing diverse academic backgrounds. It served as a platform for refining rapid thinking, effective concept expression, and communication skills. The winners, Mr Prajit Kaboo, Ms Aditi K, and Mr Siddharth Dalal displayed their exceptional skills and scored success. Dr Raeesa Begam Usmani provided mentorship, while Yashaswini Bulusu and Kaustub Boidi ensured smooth event organization.

“Unleashing Confidence: A Winner's Journey Through the Extempore Arena”

~SIDDHARAT DALAL SPTM 4TH YEAR

“Participating in the Extempore competition provided a platform for self-assessment and growth. The openness of the competition to all school members motivated me to test my skills against a diverse pool of participants, fostering a spirit of healthy competition. My approach to preparation centred on maintaining composure and speaking to the audience with ease, akin to conversing with a friend. While my performance in Extempores showcased my public speaking proficiency, it also highlighted areas for improvement in one-on-one communication.”

“Overcoming self-doubt emerged as the most challenging aspect, but I realized the importance of enjoying the process rather than fixating on the outcome. This experience bolstered my confidence and encouraged me to embrace more challenging situations proactively.

Witnessing Prajith Kaboo's captivating speech was a memorable moment, inspiring me to excel further. Leveraging the skills gained from this competition, I aim to navigate future endeavours with renewed confidence and poise. My advice to prospective participants is to focus on enjoying the stage rather than chasing accolades, as this mindset fosters growth and resilience. Overall, the Extempore competition has revitalized my confidence in public speaking, facilitating personal growth and enhancing my networking abilities.”

"EMPOWERING
LEADERS: NAVIGATING
THE LEGAL
LANDSCAPE TOGETHER
- INSIGHTS FROM THE LEGAL CONCLAVE'24"

The Placement Committee of the School of Law organized a significant event, The Legal Conclave'24, under the theme "Empowering Tomorrow's Leaders: Navigating the Legal Landscape Together." This event was a confluence of thought leaders from the legal industry, aimed at deliberating upon the current and future landscapes of the legal profession. The conclave featured a series of panel discussions with distinguished panelists, focusing on critical areas of mediation trends, insolvency and bankruptcy code insights, and essential skills for corporate advisors and in-house counsels.

PLACEMENT COMMITTEE

Panel Discussion 1: Mediation Trends and Development in India: Post Mediation Act, 2023 moderated by Ms Sunayana Kandala, Associate Counsel IAMC Hyderabad, the first panel discussion explored the evolving realm of mediation in India following the enactment of the Mediation Act, 2023. The panellists included eminent personalities like Mr K S Sharma, Mr Rajeev Rambhatla, Mr Amir Bavani, Ms Altaf Fathima, and Mr Dinesh Babu Eedi. They engaged in a comprehensive discourse on various aspects of mediation, comparing it to litigation, discussing the impact of the Mediation Act, of 2023, and envisioning the future of mediation in India. Key questions discussed revolved around the definition and advantages of mediation over litigation, the rationale and significant provisions of the Mediation Act, of 2023, its impact on public awareness and legal practice, and the prospects for young lawyers in the mediation field.

Panel Discussion 2: Practical Insights into the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code in India.

This panel was moderated by Prof. Tarun Yadav and featured insights from Ms Ekta Bahl, Mr Noorul Hassan, Mr Amir Bavani, and Mr Kamesh Vedula. They delved into the intricacies of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC), discussing its role in balancing stakeholder interests, the timing and nature of mediation within the IBC framework, the inclusion of statutory bodies and homebuyers under its ambit, and the evolution of jurisprudence around group insolvency. Discussions highlighted the IBC's impact on India's business environment, challenges in the resolution process, the utility of pre-packaged insolvency resolution, and the need for a robust legal framework to support the growth of entrepreneurship in India.

PLACEMENT COMMITTEE

Panel Discussion 3: Industry Demands – Essential Skills for Corporate Advisors and InHouse Counsels The final panel, moderated by Prof. Nishit Tandra, included Mr Pratyush Singh, Mr Shujath Bin Ali, Mr Navroze Palekar, Mr Ashish Malhotra, Mr Srinivas K., and Ms Kavya Tati. This discussion centred on the evolving skill sets required for in-house counsels and corporate advisors in the face of technological advancements and globalization. Two Key topics included the impact of globalization and technology on legal practices, the anticipated changes in employment law, strategies for in-house counsels to incorporate ESG considerations, challenges in managing complex transactions and compliance frameworks and the importance of techno-legal skills in today's market. Additionally, panellists discussed the value of alternative dispute resolution, intellectual property management, and leadership skills for legal professionals.

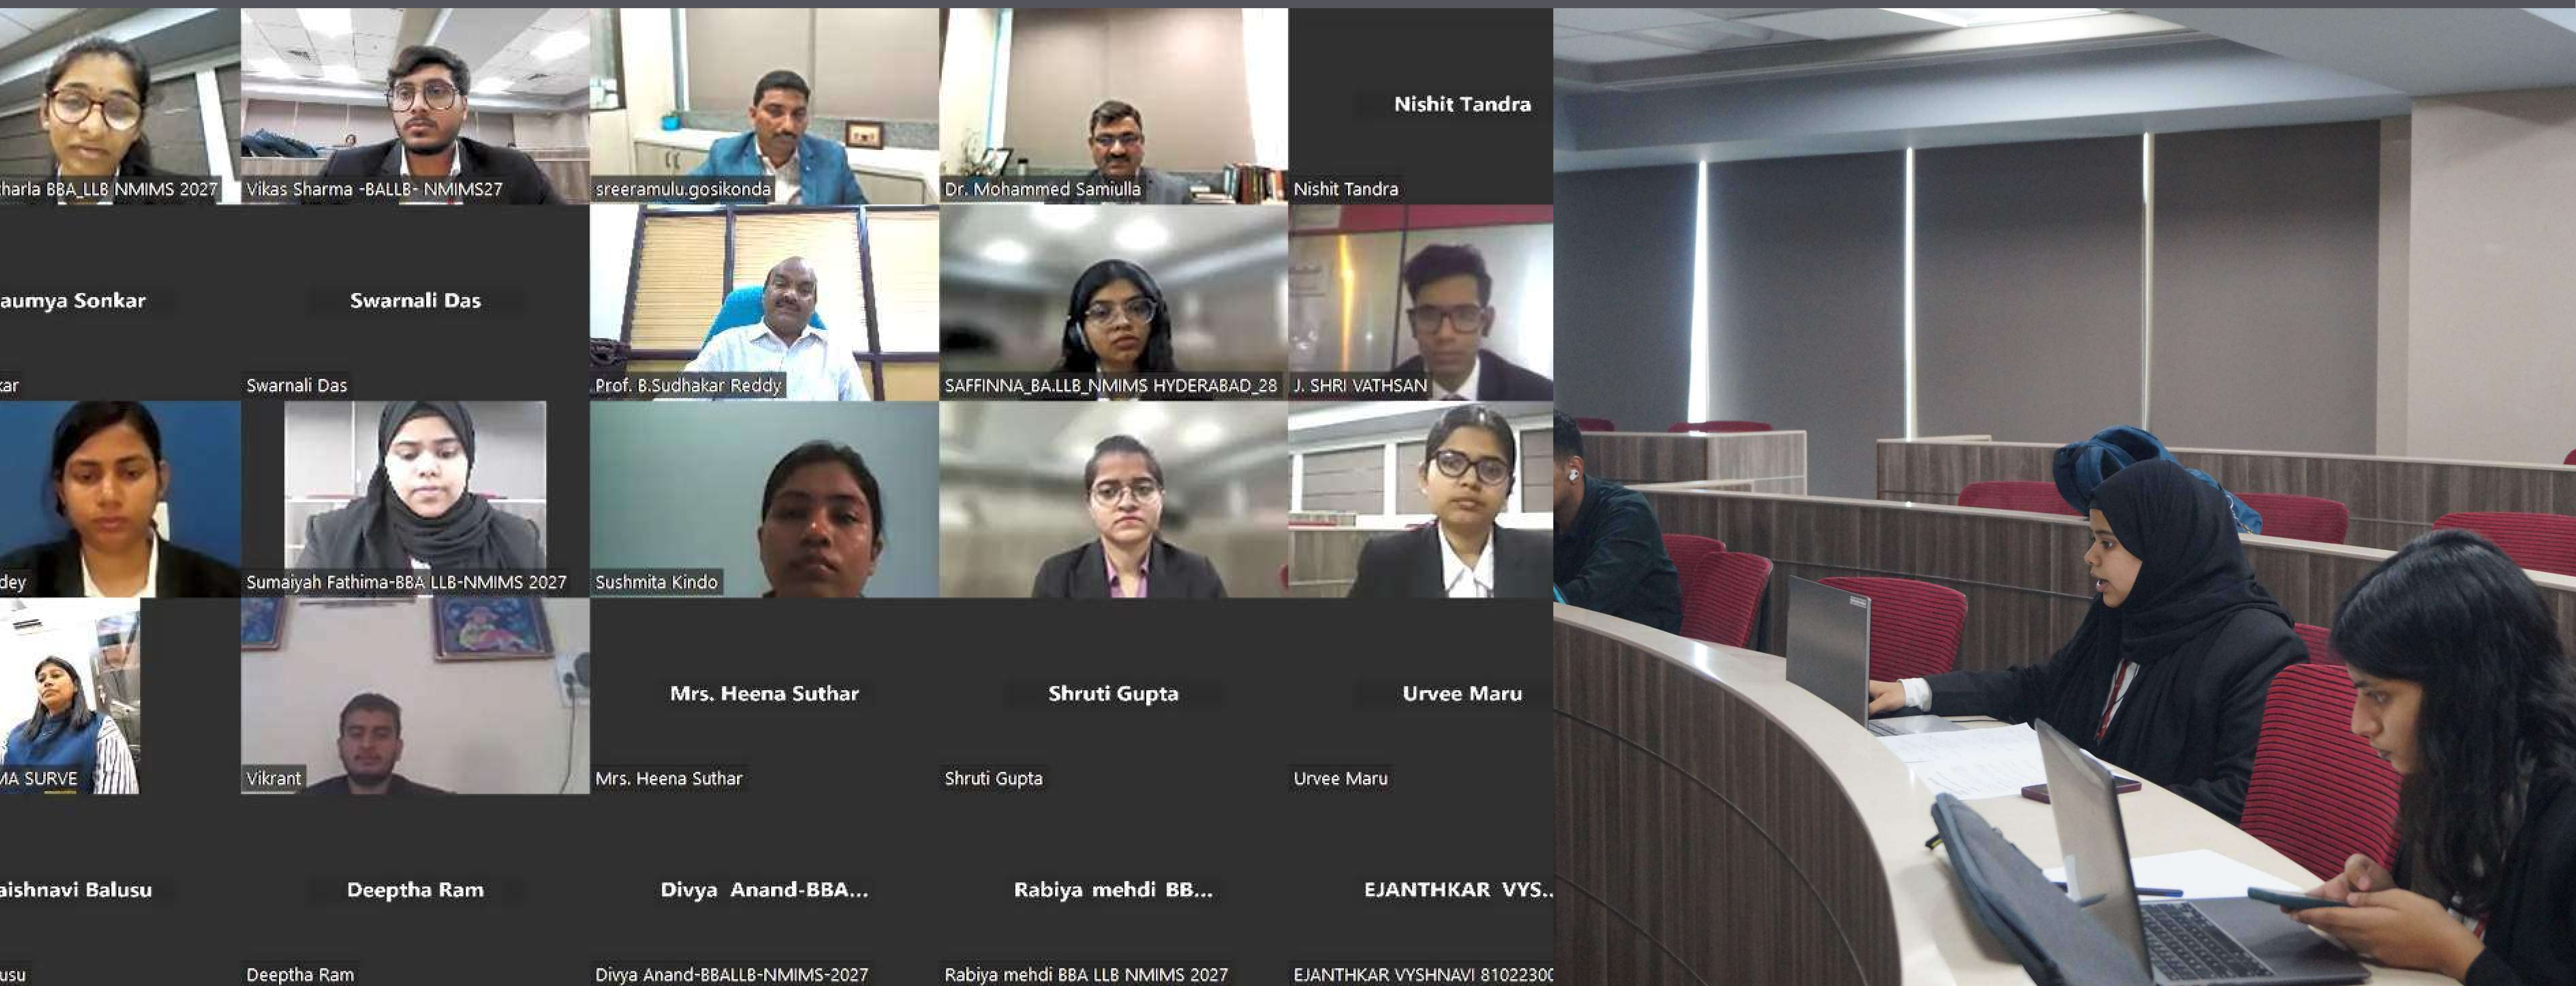

The Legal Conclave'24 served as an illuminating platform for future legal professionals, offering a deep dive into current trends and future directions in the legal landscape. Through engaging discussions and insights from industry leaders, the conclave highlighted the dynamic nature of legal practices and the essential skills required to navigate them. As the legal profession continues to evolve, events like The Legal Conclave'24 play a pivotal role in shaping and empowering the next generation of legal leaders, ensuring they are well-prepared to meet the challenges of the future.

The event culminated on a triumphant note with a Valedictory Ceremony graced by Dr Nagaraju Gundimeda, Head of the Department of Sociology at the University of Hyderabad. Dr Gundimeda's address shed profound insights into the multifaceted role of law in shaping societal development.

CULTURAL COMMITTEE

“CARNIFESTA: A Kaleidoscope of Fun and Community Spirit!”

The School of Law's Cultural Committee transformed our campus into a vibrant carnival atmosphere with CARNIFESTA! It was a lively extravaganza filled with music, poetry, games, and delicious food stalls. Imagine strolling through the colourful stands, trying your hand at ping pong ball tosses and balloon dart games.

The thrill of "Guess the Thing" had everyone eagerly guessing, adding an exciting twist to the festivities. And oh, the aroma of tasty treats from the food stalls—it was irresistible!

As the sun set, the DJ's beats filled the air, setting the stage for dancing and pure enjoyment. Laughter and applause rang out as students and teachers alike shared their talents on stage with shero shayri performances.

CARNIFESTA truly captured the spirit of a carnival, bringing our School of Law community together for a day of fun, games, and unforgettable moments.

CULTURAL COMMITTEE

“Hues of Unity: Celebrating Holi at the School of Law!”

In a vibrant celebration of tradition and camaraderie, the Cultural Committee of the School of Law, in collaboration with the student council, PR Committee and the School of Pharmacy, recently organized a spectacular Holi festival. The two-day event, held on 24th and 25th March, immersed everyone in the joyous spirit of the festival of colours.

24th March – Holika Dahan: The festivities commenced on 24th March with the traditional ritual of Holika Dahan.

As the sun began its descent, students gathered around a magnificent bonfire. The evening was steeped in sacredness as the rituals of Pooja and Aarti filled the air, invoking blessings and auspiciousness for all. Following the rituals, a delightful dinner awaited the students, setting the stage for a festive evening.

On March 25th, Holi was celebrated at the School of Law with vibrant colors, water splashes, and traditional thandai.

Students embraced the spirit of Holi, smearing each other with gulal and dancing joyously to the beats of the DJ. It was a celebration of togetherness, tradition, and cultural richness, creating unforgettable moments and cherished memories. Gratitude is extended to all who participated, making the festival a resounding success. Here's to more celebrations uniting us as one vibrant family at the School of Law!

ATHLOS – SPORTS COMMITTEE

“ATHLOS Sports Gathering: Athleticism and Spirit of Sportsmanship!”

Nthuz Sports Committee recently concluded a series of exhilarating farewell matches for the MBA students, showcasing an impressive display of athleticism and sportsmanship. In the basketball match, the undergraduates emerged victorious with a score count of 55–35, as the captain Narasimha Reddy and Pranav Nadella scored the most baskets.

While the MBA team wrestled victory in cricket and football. However, the undergraduates claimed victory in the throwball event, demonstrating their prowess on the court. Meanwhile, the volleyball contest saw the MBA team emerging victorious, adding another feather to their cap.

Additionally, an athletics event was held to select runners for the upcoming BITS tournament, where Rishika Reddy showcased her talent and secured victory in the competition.

In another highlight, the NMPL for cricket held in January witnessed an intense showdown, with NM–Narcos emerging victorious against NM–Lords. Shashwat Deshmukh, the captain of the winning MBA team, not only led his team to victory but also earned the title of Man of the Match, showcasing exceptional skill and leadership on the field.

LEGAL WRITING TIPS

"CRAFTING LEGAL EXCELLENCE: KEY TIPS FOR MOOT COURT MEMORIAL SUCCESS!"

When creating a memorial for a moot court competition, consider the following tips:

by Janhavi Sharma, 2nd Year B.B.A L.L.B

1. Start by carefully reading the statement in question to understand the concerns and determine which laws apply. This thorough comprehension of the proposition is essential for properly presenting the issues.
2. Create a preliminary draft to organize the research results and remove any unnecessary information. In presenting arguments, this procedure guarantees attention and clarity.
3. Avoid statements in passive tense always and frame arguments using powerful positive language. This strategy improves the arguments' clarity and persuasiveness.
4. Examine the memorial carefully, focusing on aspects like headings, line spacing, style, font size, and grammar mistakes. The overall impression and efficacy of the submissions are greatly influenced by these aspects.
5. When composing arguments in the memorial, make sure to include references in the appropriate format, such as the OSCOLA, SLIC, or Bluebook edition, and to do so promptly and consistently. Be sure to pay close attention to citations to maintain professionalism and correctness.
