

SOL Student Council 2024-2025

I am Nikita Sikarwar, President, School of Law, NMIMS Hyderabad. This role is not just a title but a responsibility to serve, represent, and uplift our student body. My vision is to foster a culture of unity, inclusivity, and innovation, ensuring every student's voice is heard.

My vision is to create a balanced and enriching experience that focuses on both academic excellence and extracurricular engagement, ensuring that we grow not only as students but also as future legal professionals.

One of my key priorities is to enhance our academic environment by organizing insightful legal discussions, moot court competitions, and networking opportunities that prepare us for the challenges of the legal field. At the same time, I aim to promote non-academic events that build camaraderie, leadership, and personal growth, making our journey in law school more fulfilling.

Beyond our campus, I am dedicated to strengthening our law school's reputation among institutions nationwide. By actively participating in inter-school legal forums, competitions, and collaborations, we can showcase our talent and establish ourselves as a leading institution.

Warm Regards,
Nikita Sikarwar

I am Daksha Sharma, and I have the honor of serving as the Vice President of the School of Law at NMIMS Hyderabad. As a passionate and dedicated leader, I am committed to fostering an environment that encourages academic excellence while promoting a healthy balance between extracurricular and co-curricular activities.

With a strong focus on communication and leadership, I aim to bridge the gap between the administration and the student body, ensuring that the voices of our students are heard and their needs are met. I believe in bringing fresh, innovative ideas to the table, and I am confident that these initiatives will contribute to the holistic growth of our institution.

My goal is to make the School of Law not only a place of rigorous academic pursuit but also one where students thrive socially, culturally, and professionally. I look forward to working closely with faculty, administration, and students to make our school the best it can be.

Warm Regards,
Daksha Sharma

I am Pruthvijeet Kalantri, and I have the honor of serving as the General Secretary of the School of Law at NMIMS Hyderabad. As General Secretary of the Student Council, I am deeply committed to fostering an inclusive and supportive environment where every student thrives. I believe in open communication, prioritizing student welfare, and cultivating a collaborative and ethical atmosphere within the law school community.

I envision a dynamic student council that actively engages students, provides robust academic support, facilitates meaningful professional development opportunities, and strengthens the vital bond between students and faculty.

Through proactive initiatives and collaborative efforts, I aim to empower students to reach their full potential both academically and professionally while contributing meaningfully to the legal professional.

Best Regards,
