

Myth:

IPO allotments are first-come, first-served

VS

Fact:

Some believe that submitting their application early increases their chances of getting shares. In reality, as long as you apply within the IPO window, your application is considered equally with everyone else's, no matter when you submit it.

